Qantas Super Appoints CEO

Sydney, 1 December 2011

Qantas Superannuation Limited ('Qantas Super'), the trustee of the Qantas Superannuation Plan, today announced the appointment of Jane Perry as Chief Executive Officer, effective 1 February 2012.

"I am delighted to welcome Jane to Qantas Super. She is an outstanding senior executive with considerable achievements in operations, administration, strategic leadership, HR and customer service across a range of financial services organisations," said Anne Ward, Chairman of Qantas Super.

"Jane brings a wealth of experience and expertise to the Plan and I look forward to the positive contribution she will make."

Commenting on her appointment, Jane Perry said "I am excited to be joining such a highly respected Plan and being able to work with the Qantas Super team and its providers to improve service and benefits for members".

Jane has been with JPMorgan Chase & Co since 2008 and was most recently Chief Executive Officer of Treasury and Securities Services for Australia and New Zealand. Prior to that she spent 10 years with AXA Asia Pacific Holdings in a variety of senior roles including Chief Operations Officer, General Manager Adviser and Customer Service and General Manager People. Her earlier experience was in management consulting, public administration and education. Jane is a member of the Salvation Army Sydney Advisory Board and a Director of the Australian Brandenburg Orchestra.

Qantas Super was assisted in its recruitment process by Korn Ferry.
